

SPANISH MAJOR – EFFECTIVE FALL 2010

LOWER DIVISION REQUIREMENTS (14 units– 3 courses)

1. _____ Spanish 25 or 27 - Advanced Conversation and Composition
2. _____ Spanish 42 – Civilization of Spain
3. _____ Spanish 44 – Civilization of Spanish America

UPPER DIVISION REQUIREMENTS (44 units – 11 courses)

I. Introductory Level: It is recommended that students take both courses early in their upper division work

1. _____ Spanish 119 – Structure of the Literary Work
2. _____ Spanish 120 – History of Literature

II. Advanced Level: Students must take 8 from the following (topic courses can be repeated for credit with topic change)

Spanish 100A – Spanish Phonology and Morphology
Spanish 100B – Spanish Syntax
Spanish 130 – Topics in Medieval Studies
Spanish 135 – Topics in Early Modern Studies
Spanish 140 – Topics in Modern Studies
Spanish M145A – Introduction to Chicano Literature to 1960
Spanish M145B – Introduction to Chicano Literature from 1960

Spanish 150 – Topics in Contemporary Studies
Spanish 155 – Topics in U.S. Latino Studies
Spanish 160 – Topics in Spanish Linguistics
Spanish M165SL – Taking it to the Streets: Spanish in the Community
Spanish 170 – Topics in Media, Interdisciplinary, and Trans-Historical Studies
Spanish M172SL – Latinos, Linguistics, and Literacy
Spanish 175 – Creative Writing or Translation

If you have already taken some of the upper division courses in the department that have been discontinued (e.g., 105, M118A, 128, 137, etc), they will also count towards your 8 electives

Up to two courses that deal with Spain or Spanish America can also be taken in other departments. Please submit a petition to the Undergraduate Advisor for course approval.

- | | |
|----------|----------|
| 1. _____ | 5. _____ |
| 2. _____ | 6. _____ |
| 3. _____ | 7. _____ |
| 4. _____ | 8. _____ |

III. Capstone Seminar: Students must take one capstone seminar in their senior year.

1. _____ Spanish 191C – Senior Capstone Seminar